

TINA & ADAM

A New Dawn

WHO Tina Sade, 29, administrations manager, and Adam Leigh, 30, hospitality manager.

WHEN July 7, 2007.

WHERE "Our dawn ceremony on Whale Beach, NSW, ended at sunrise at 7am on the seventh day of the seventh month in 2007! Our vows reflected the elements of earth, fire, wind and water. After a light brunch, we went to the reception at Jonah's, which overlooks the beach."

GUESTS "More than 40 at our sunrise ceremony, and another 60 at the midday reception."

HAIR "My intricate hairstyle had grey, white and blue georgette ribbons to match my dress."

RINGS "Adam and I both have engagement rings; my wedding ring overlaps and cups the top half of my engagement ring, and Adam's two rings appear as one when worn together."

INVITATIONS "Hand-sewn raw silk with Ralph Lauren nautical-themed paper-lined envelopes."

FLOWERS "I held a quartz pendulum on a silver chain instead of a traditional bouquet."

THE DAY "Arriving at the beach while it was dark was amazing. The skyline was clear and the sound of the ocean was mesmerising."

DECORATIONS "The marquee for brunch was decorated with wrought-iron lanterns, a sea-grass runner, white ottomans and large flower arrangements. The chill-out area at Jonah's was draped with muslin, and Moroccan doors framed the entry to the balcony."

CAKE "Three tiers covered with white icing and hundreds of handmade white flowers."

FAVOURS "Perspex boxes filled with gourmet jellybeans doubled as place cards."

TRANSPORT "We hired minibuses to give guests from Sydney the option of not driving."

"A CLEAR marquee allowed us to see the sunrise."

"I WORE A SEQUINED BOLERO over a silk-satin bodice. My skirt was WHITE, BLUE AND GREY silk georgette layered over white satin; A SPLIT AT THE FRONT showed each colour"

"THE CHILL-OUT AREA looked spectacular."

"IT FELT like we were in a world of our own."

"THE TABLES were dressed with candles, coral and shells."
